

This father's day, Colorado National Speedway is going to honor your dad the only way we know how: With half price admission! (grandstand's only)

That's right! We're revving it up just for pops at Colorado National Speedway, the state's only home for official NASCAR racing! The first 500 Dads through the gate will get a free hat compliments of sponsor Snap-On Tools!

The fun starts at 6PM this Saturday night at Colorado National Speedway in good ol' Dacono Colorado. So get the gang together and head on down! Dad will get to enjoy TWIN Late Model 40 lap main events, the RMMRA Midgets, Super Stocks, and the Figure 8's.

A special night dad won't forget will be waiting this Saturday at Colorado National Speedway, the family place for fun and excitement.
